Trunks of Banker's Wife Seized Woman Called Before Official

Herman Broesel

Mrs. C. H. Hopkins.

DID NOT MAKE PROPER DECLARATION OF GOODS

Woman Wanted to Keep Purchases Secret From Husband—Pearls Purchased at Home.

New York, September 4.—Mrs. Herman Broesel, wife of Herman Broesel, president of the Jefferson Bank, and a wealthy importer of this city, appeared before Special Deputy Surveyor Smythe following her arrival on the Lusitania to explain why she failed to make proper declaration of articles in her five trunks. To Mr. Smythe she said:

"I didn't think it was necessary to mention the presents I received abroad, and also I didn't wish my husband to know that I had purchased gowns abroad."

The five trunks are at the Appraisers' Warehouse. It is understood the trunks contain many gowns, hats and other wearing apparel worth more than Mrs. Broesel declared.

On the Lusitania was Mrs. C. H. Hopkins, of Santa Barbara, Cal., who was requested to appear before Mr. Smythe and explain why a pearl collar and other jewelry did not appear on her declaration.

Mrs. Hopkins proved to the satisfaction of Mr. Smythe that the pearl collar was purchased in California years ago, and it was released. Mrs. Hopkins, however, was compelled to pay the duty on a setting which cost her $250 in Paris.

PREPARING FOR ELKS' CONVENTION

Charlottesville Putting on Gala Attire for State Gathering.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., September 4.—The committee having charge of the arrangements for entertaining the fourth annual convention of Elks, which meets in Charlottesville on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, has been somewhat handicapped by reason of the uncertainty prevailing in some of the sister lodges as to the number of members they will send, but the indications at present are that there will be about 400 visitors, which, with the 200 members from the local lodge, should give the city quite a gala appearance for several days.

Nothing has been spared for the comfort and enjoyment of the visiting members and their wives. Quite a number will be quartered at the Jefferson Park Hotel, which has many features of a summer resort. At 8:30 Tuesday night a Dutch lunch will be given at the Elks' Home. On Wednesday a band concert at 2:30 there will be a band concert at the ball park at the Horse Show grounds, just preceding the ball game between the Elks and the Eagles. At 9 o'clock in the evening there will be a smoker at the Elks' Home.

The convention will close with an old-fashioned banquet and Brunswick stew at "Wilton," the suburban home of J. Anderson Chisholm, the retiring president of the association. Conveyances will leave the Elks' Home beginning at 10 A. M.

The famous Stonewall Band from Staunton will accompany the delegates from that lodge, and furnish music at the home, as well as at the ball park, Tuesday afternoon.

The Staunton delegates are coming over 100 strong with the avowed intention of winning the reunion for next year. Hulst Glenn, of that city, is now vice-president of the State organization, is being boomed for president, and the Valley Elks will do all that is possible to have him elected.

Mr. Glenn is an enthusiastic worker of the order, and is very popular with the antlered tribe throughout the State.

At the same time a marker upon the site of the Spring Hill Redoubt, where Sergeant Jasper and others were killed, will be dedicated.

SOFT BREAD FOR SOLDIERS. Field Bakery at Gettysburg Camp Gives Satisfactory Results.

Washington, September 4.—No more hard bread to be the ally lot of soldiers of the American army, if the expectations of the subsistence department are realized.

At the monastic camp at Gettysburg, Pa., this summer, a trial was given a field bakery. The result was very gratifying, and Captain Morton J. Henry, chief commissary of the Gettysburg camp, has reported to the War Department that there should be no question of the ability of the subsistence department to furnish soft bread always for the soldiers.

GEORGE F. BAER TO RESIGN. Will Be Succeeded by W. G. Bessler as President of Central of New Jersey. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Philadelphia, Pa., September 4.—Railroad men here have been informed that George F. Baer has decided to resign the presidency of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, and will be succeeded by Vice-President and General Manager W. G. Bessler.

The proposed change is common knowledge among all Central Railroad men, who say that the official announcement will come before October.

Mr. Bessler, who just returned from a vacation trip to Europe, was promoted to the vice-presidency of the Central Railroad from the position of general superintendent of the Reading.

He is a son of George Bessler, who a long time was superintendent of the Illinois division of the C. B. & Q. With the succession of Mr. Bessler to the presidency of the Jersey Central, Mr. Huntington will be made general manager, and E. E. Kavan will take Mr. Huntington's place, advancing C. R. Merrill, now superintendent of the Lehigh and Susquehanna division, to the general superintendency.

Mr. Baer was seen at his home in this city last night, but refused to discuss the matter.
